Qualification requirements

Phase 0 Pre ABMG	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>You will hold one of the partner organisations Level 3 MTB Leader qualifications and associated pre-requisites for the ABMG course (international experience, expeditions, night riding etc). Strong Level 2 leaders may be excepted and mentored to Phase 1 Trainee Guide.</li></ul>
Phase 1 ABMG Training and Assessment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Register with ABMG as a Trainee Guide</li><li>Your 3 day ABMG course integrates Training and Assessment against set competency criteria. It is expected that most learners will achieve only some of the competencies at first attendance. Although it is possible to achieve all competencies first time, it would be prudent to expect to attend the course or modules of the course, more than once. Course attendance in itself is not sufficient to evidence competency.</li><li>You will be provided with a tailored Action Plan to help you complete your ABMG Phase, including consolidation of learning. This period may include some ongoing advice from your chosen provider.</li><li>When all competencies are achieved, you will be awarded ABMG Guide status and can go on to the EO-MTBIInG Assessment</li></ul>
Phase 2 EO-MTBIInG Assessment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Successful completion of the ABMG course and consolidation period is designed to prepare learners for the EO-MTBIInG assessment.</li><li>The EO-MTBIInG course is an assessment only. It requires successful achievement of all assessment criteria in order to achieve the qualification. Course attendance in itself is not sufficient to evidence competency.</li></ul>
Phase 3 EO-MTBIInG Guide	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>Once qualified, you become an ABMG affiliated EO-MTBIInG Guide.</li><li>EO-MTBIInG provide support to all award holders in partner countries through their affiliation with their home country partner (for British Guides, ABMG)</li><li>Your affiliation with EO-MTBIInG is only valid with continued ABMG membership.</li></ul>
